

Reverend Diane Shoaf, a Presbyterian minister, has served churches and higher education institutions in South Florida for 22 years. She earned her Master of Divinity degree at Columbia Theological Seminary, completed the Associate Spiritual Direction training at West Virginia Institute for Spirituality, and is writing her dissertation for the Ph.D. in Practical Theology at St. Thomas University.

She currently serves as Spiritual Life Director at First Presbyterian Church, Miami, Florida. In addition, her ministry as a spiritual director includes providing individual and group spiritual direction, discernment with individuals and congregations, retreat work, and creative worship. Her current interest is the evolution of Christianity in the 21st century through contemporary practices of individual and communal prayer and liturgy.

Diane has lived in South Florida since the 1950s. She and her husband Dave raised four children in Miami Shores. They are the proud grandparents of three.
