

Carrie is a married Roman Catholic laywoman and member of St. Demetrius Parish in Gallitzin PA where she is involved in music ministry. She and her husband, Bob, are the parents of three daughters. Her background includes nursing & nurse-midwifery practice as an officer in the U.S. Navy Nurse Corps until 1982.

Since then, she has served on the faculties in nursing at St. Francis University in Loretto PA, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Mount Aloysius College in Cresson PA, and Duquesne University in Pittsburgh PA where she also served on the graduate faculty and coordinated the masters in nursing education.

Carrie earned her BSN at Georgetown University, her MSN and training in midwifery at the University of Utah, and her doctorate in higher education, program planning and evaluation, at Penn State University. She returned for a second masters in spiritual & pastoral care at Loyola University of Maryland. Carrie obtained Certificates in Spiritual Direction & Leadership and Direction of the 19th Annotation from the Pneuma Spiritual Direction & Leadership Program at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, and a Certificate in Supervision from WWIS.

Carrie is the coordinator of the Pittsburgh Regional Ignatian Spirituality Project (ISP), one of more than 20 teams across the nation offering retreats to men and women who have been homeless and are in recovery. She is also a member of Friends of L'Arche Altoona Johnstown, a group endeavoring to establish a L'Arche Community in that region of PA.

Carrie is also an associate of the Pneuma Institute and serves on the leadership team of its Spiritual Direction training program. She offers spiritual & retreat direction, supervision, & direction in the 19th Annotation of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola.

Carrie Nickerson
511 Keystone Avenue
Cresson PA 16630
814-935-6890
carolyn.j.nickerson@gmail.com