

Father Bill Petro, M.A., was born in West Winfield, PA (Butler County) and was raised in Pittsburgh. He attended St. Fidelis Seminary, Herman, PA and Capuchin College, Washington DC, with Masters in Religious Education. He was ordained in 1968 for the Capuchin Franciscan Order.

After pastoring in parishes in Kansas, Ohio, and Maryland, he joined the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston in 1984. During his time pastoring in Belle, Coalburg and Bluefield, WV, and as chaplain at Marshall University, he experienced the people's need for spirituality and catechesis.

He began his training in the ministry of spiritual direction at Mercy Center, Burlingame, CA. He continued that training with sabbatical at the Institute for Spiritual Leadership (ISL), Loyola University, Chicago. He completed certification at WVIS, 2000. He also holds certifications in the Ignatian spiritual exercises and supervision of spiritual directors. He is the director of the Charleston Chapter of the International Thomas Merton Institute. He has been on WVIS staff since 1993. He participates in the training and supervision of spiritual directors

Email contact: frbpetro42@gmail.com